

Order of Supervision Bond
Information Sheet¹

This bond is issued for an individual subject to a post removal period order of supervision. This generally follows a final order of removal.² Specific conditions the individual must abide by are attached to the bond (Form I-220B) and non-compliance with any of the conditions could result in bond breach (loss). Additionally, the individual must comply with appearance demands made by DHS.

Some of the conditions may include:

- That upon request of DHS, the individual appears for medical or psychiatric examinations at the expense of the United States Government.
- That the individual does not travel outside his or her home state or county for more than 48 hours without first having notified DHS of the date and places, and obtaining approval from DHS of such travel.
- That the individual does not commit any crimes while on the order of supervision.
- That the individual does not associate with known gang members, criminal associates, or be associated with any such activity.
