6. Indemnitor is entitled to receive a signed Collateral Receipt from the Producer to whom collateral is tendered. If collateral was tendered in connection with the Bond, Indemnitor acknowledges that the Producer provided Indemnitor with a signed original Collateral Receipt that accurately describes the collateral and its condition upon receipt by the Producer.
7. Surety may use, sell or otherwise liquidate collateral, in a reasonable manner, to satisfy losses sustained as a result of the issuance of the Bail Bond after the expiration of 30 calendar days following the entry of a bond forfeiture order by the Court. Additional authorized uses of the collateral and its proceeds include: (a) Actual costs for daily storage fees incurred by Surety at public self-service storage facilities used to hold collateral; (b) The balance due on the premium, posting and filing fees due for the Bond; (c) Expenses and costs incurred to apprehend and return Defendant to custody, including the fees and expenses of bail recovery agents, and services.
8. Collateral will only be returned to the person who pledged the collateral.
9. Collateral will be returned within 14 days after receipt of a Certificate of Discharge or a true copy of the court order releasing and discharging the Bond. Trust Deeds upon real property will be released within 35 days after Surety receives a Certificate of Discharge, or a true copy of the Court order releasing and discharging the Bail Bond from an INDEMNITOR. It is the Indemnitor's responsibility to provide Surety with this documentation at the address of either the Producer, or Surety, as shown above.
10. Bond Claims/Forfeiture/Remission. Surety has the exclusive right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to determine whether any claim or demand upon the Bond shall be paid, compromised, defended, appealed and whether to seek remission. Evidence of payment made by Surety as a result of a bond claim, a forfeiture or Defendant's failure to appear shall be conclusive evidence of such payment and shall be binding upon Indemnitor and his/her estate both as to the propriety of such payment and the liability of Indemnitor to Surety therefor.
11. Other Costs Due Upon a Failure to Appear. The Surety may establish an investigative file to facilitate apprehension of the Defendant. The cost to establish such file is $100.00, which is due and payable upon the Defendant's failure to appear. Indemnitor further agrees to pay for the actual time spent by the Producer or the associates of the Producer, at a reasonable hourly rate, for necessary administrative actions and filings required of the Surety relating to the Defendant's failure to appear.
12. Modifications in Writing. Any waiver, alteration or modification of any of the printed provisions of this Contract shall be valid only if in writing and signed by the Surety.
13. All obligations of the Indemnitor hereunder are irrevocable and shall be binding upon the legal representatives, successors and assigns of the Indemnitor. This Contract remains in force and is not terminated, modified or otherwise affected by: (a) Revocation of the Bond; (b) Any change in the status of the Surety's liability under the Bond; (c) Any change in the location, nature or status of court proceedings in which Defendant must appear, or (d) Any change in Defendant's whereabouts, physical condition or legal capacity.
14. A material false statement made on any of the paperwork associated with the Bond application shall be cause for revocation of the Bond and return of the Defendant to custody.
15. If a premium refund is ordered by the court after a bond is posted, premium will be returned in the amount and within the time specified in the court order. If the bail bond is not posted within 24 hours, as required by law, all monies paid to the Producer must be returned within 48 hours.
16. It is agreed that the Surety relied upon Indemnitor's promises to fulfill all obligations under this contract, and upon the truth and accuracy of information supplied by Indemnitor on all associated bond application documents when making the decision to authorize, issue and post the Bond, and further agrees that the Bond would not have been posted in the absence of same.
17. Any tender of payment made with a bad check, a check or other instrument returned for insufficient funds, stopped, or that is otherwise refused upon presentment, constitutes a default. Indemnitor shall be liable for all associated costs of collection, handling fees, damages, reasonable attorneys fees and penalties arising from such tender.
18. Surety is under no obligation to allow the substitution of new or different collateral for the collateral originally tendered by Indemnitor. Substitution of collateral is at the sole discretion of the Surety.
19. In the event revocation is requested by any indemnitor, the revocation request must be in writing. Surety is under no obligation to revoke the Bond upon the request of any indemnitor. Indemnitor acknowledges that a request for Bond revocation will involve fees and expenses including, but not limited to, obtaining a certified copy of the Bond, locating, apprehending and returning the Defendant to the proper authorities, preparing and filing documents necessary to obtain a release and discharge of the Bond, and Indemnitor further acknowledges liability for all such, fees, costs and expenses, including attorneys fees and costs associated therewith.
20. If this Contract is executed by more than one person, each person shall be jointly and severally liable under this Contract.
21. Singular words in this Contract shall be construed and deemed to include the plural of the word where more than one person is executing this Contract.
22. The failure of Surety to enforce any provision of this Contract for any period of time shall not be construed as a waiver of that provision, nor shall the Surety's forbearance from enforcing any provision be construed as a waiver of its right to enforce any other provision of the Contract in the future.
23. This Contract shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with Colorado law and shall favor its enforceability as a whole. If any provision is found to be unenforceable, the remaining Contract provisions shall be enforceable.
24. Privacy Waiver - Indemnitor. Indemnitor authorizes Surety to obtain, review and investigate all information supplied by any Indemnitor on the bond application, including his/her credit history and details concerning Indemnitor's relationship with Defendant. The Surety never sells this information to third-parties. The Surety reserves the right to disclose the foregoing information to state insurance regulators, business affiliates of Surety and, in the event of a failure of the defendant to appear, to provide all such information to persons engaged by Surety to investigate, apprehend and return the Defendant to custody, and will be used to assure Defendant's appearance as required by the Bond. Indemnitor irrevocably waives all privacy claims against any person who releases the foregoing confidential information to Surety or anyone acting on its behalf in connection with efforts to return the Defendant to custody or to otherwise enforce the terms of this Contract.
